NOTICES & NEWS

Update on Kevin, sent to & edited by Don & Beverley Bonner...

I was watching some pictures of myself there in Canada and I couldn't believe how long my hair was. I looked very different. I couldn't last two hours in Colombia with my hair like that.

I bet there's no 'Friends' or soccer going on on TV by now. I bet there's a lot more of Corner Gas or The Antique show thing. I miss the people in the club a lot (who am I kidding? I miss the BACON Wednesday!) But seriously, I miss the people as well. How's everything with Bill? It has to be a different style, eh?

I was traveling last week with my family to my home city, Ibagué. I saw my Grandmother, my uncles and my aunt, my cousins and pretty much everybody. I danced a lot in the town's festivities with my girlfriend and everything. The very first day I got drunk very nicely with my friends, it was pretty cool.

Coming back to Colombia is always hard in a way that my country is very undeveloped; not only in an economic way but in a social way. But I missed it. There wasn't such a cultural shock, cause while I was in Canada I kept track of my country's situation and all that stuff. Funny story, the very first day I was in a cap and I told the driver to go to my place in English without thinking and the guy just gave me the strangest look ever. I was laughing so hard when I got home.

Copa América is going great. Colombia is the best team so far, we made 7/9 Points in the first round and now Saturday we are gonna play the quarter finals. I'm so nervous, but it's great to see again some Soccer. The FIFA U-20 World Cup in Colombia starts at the end of this month so my country is gonna host more than 50 000 tourists (I really don't know how many, but a lot). I installed my PS3. As a matter of fact, I was playing with you and your team yesterday. The only thing is that my sister is the only one who's got a Plasma TV so she's the only one with a HD tv, and her TV is 21" only.

I've been reading a lot, there's a lot of books that I wanted to read (mostly Latin American authors) and now I'm on that. I keep hanging out with my girlfriend almost everyday.

I miss you a lot, I miss being teased and all that stuff, the humour is very different. That's the thing that I miss the most. But anyway, I hope everything is fine I send you lots of hugs and best wishes.

Kevin

Meeting Notes - July 13th

wordsmith Ron Blank, photos Donna Allen

Second week in the reign of President Bill Brendon, and blessed again with the toots of Rod Mont. Ron gave an invocation appropriate to the topic of addiction

Daryl Knieval handled Introductions. Chris Everett presented Michael Leduc (supplied with a member application) Randall Taylor intro'd Don Moody and France Tellier, both with Nanaimo Addiction Society.

Sergeant-at-arms Denise Davidson did an admirable job of sending the rabble to their repast, though, the "Serenity Prayer" was heard in muted form.

Eileen Page's Minute was on the differences, and similarities, of visiting Rotary Clubs in her native New Zealand. Whilst on the North Island, she visited Ahururiri Sunrise for breakfast, Napier Club for lunch and could visit Ahuriri Club for dinner. She remains impressed with the feeling of community and fellowship of Rotary.

Brian Kirkhope was doing the family touristy thing in Drumheller and also managed to do a make-up. Segue to the Regional Swim meet, to be held in Nanaimo, on the 6th of August. The job is ours! We will be feeding 200 plus parents and kids attending this meet, have the use of both cafeteria's at NDSS, adjacent to our Nanaimo Aquatic Centre. Food details being worked out. All hands needed. Let Brian know.

...Brian talks about the job of feeding participants and parents at the Regional Swim Meet on August 6th...

President Bill noted that Daryl Stech asked for some time off, and will take an LOA.

Randall Taylor wants your money! Dues that is, as funds have to be sent to Rotary International.

Randall then let Don Moody, Vice-President of Nanaimo Addiction Foundation, (NAF) take the floor. Don said he's been in Nanaimo since 1978, has over 40 years of experience in the criminal justice field, and recently retired as the Warden on Nanaimo Correctional Centre. He was involved with establishing the first prisoner "Therapeutic Community" treatment centre, for inmates, within a Canadian Correctional Centre.

France Tellier is NAF President and has lived in Nanaimo for the past 25 years and works with John Howard Society in programme development, monitoring & evaluation and is now their Co-Executive Director. In 2004, France joined the Nanaimo Alcohol & Drug Action Coalition, which morphed into the NAF as a charitable foundation by 2007. Another Nanaimo organization, ADAPT, folded in 2010 and they donated their funds to NAF.

NAF Board of Directors has seven trustees. (and even includes our ever-busy Christine McAuley)

Their purpose is to be "a leader in making a healthier community" by funding for development, implementation and coordination of of addiction education, prevention, harm reduction and treatment with non-profit societies, within the Nanaimo Region.

This year, NAF will distribute $30,000. ie. Nanaimo Family Life Assoc rec'd $13,800 for programmes with at-risk youth. They also partner with the City of Nanaimo & others.

~~~~~ Four Way Test

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

What is an addiction? It's an abnormal psychological dependance on such things as drugs, alcohol, sex, pornography, shopping, work, etc. that, without treatment, results in negative consequences, can be progressive and may result in disability or premature death. Addictions are caused by your environment, and your genes.

Anyone can become addicted. People of all ages, sex or economic status can become addicted. Risk factors include family history addiction, being male, having another psychological problem, peer pressure, lack of family involvement, anxiety, depression, loneliness and by taking a highly addictive drug. It is estimated that 10 % of BC population has addictions (NOT INCL TOBACCO!) VIHA estimate that 150,000 people in our region are addicted. With youth: 15.6% to booze and 14.6% to marijuana.

The good news is that support programmes and services will lead to recovery. The goal of treatment is to eliminate poverty, support and educate the addicts. "Recovery is a reality for millions addictions."

Don said that their treatment programme results in only 33 % recidivism (failure) rate. But, they must work within all levels of the addicts family. Be it from mothers, to wife, husbands, children, family and friends. This will then result in prevention of addictions. Don answered one particular question, in that, in most cases, addicts recover when they are educated and supported in their treatment programme. Nelson Allen thanked our guests and presented the book to be donated to a children's library.
