Meeting Notes - April 16/14

notes by Ron Blank photos by Donna Allen

A delightful sight at the door, Karin Mattern taking our monies. Greeter Nelson Allen figured Ron doing a Howie Mandell improv. Fact was he was not wanting to share an impending cold, so elbowed instead of hugging or gripping our guests. (Developed into bronchitis)

Guests: Barry Sparkes, Ass't Dist Gov and Lantville Rotarian, and Neil presented Jana Koster, Royal Lepage Realtor and Golf Sponsor.

Doug Lum tried for brownie points with calling Sergeant Denise Davidson "My Fair Lady." It worked as both he and Jeff Boegel were first off to brekkie, before the rest of the back table.

Doug later chatted on Rotary Youth Leadership Academy (RYLA). Lynda Kazanowski and others interviewed 140, yes, one hundred and forty applicants. The five selected are truly amazing kids. They will spend four days in March at a leadership conference in Pacific Lutheran University in Tacoma Washington with about 100 participants from Districts 5020/5030. Clubs sponsor them at US $325 each, which includes registration, food and transport. They go down as kids and return with the knowledge they can make a change in our world.

Patrick Maguire and Denise Larson have visited Chris Everett and he is mending well. Visitors are appreciated.

Dave Thompson, Funds Allocation Chair said the Committee has about $1,000 left for this fiscal year and recently funded $500 for D.A.R.E. (Drug and Awareness Resistance Education). This 10 week programme is presented to over 1,000 grades 5/6 students in our School District. He noted the Committee decided to offer physical, rather than financial help, to Habitat for Humanity housing.

Next up, Jeff on Poker Tourney on Saturday the 26th, volunteer sign-up sheet sent around. Be at Nanoose Library Centre at 6:30. Cards drop at Seven and Stormy is the Poker organizer. Details http://daybreakrotary.ca/index.php?p=3_35

In chronological order, Patrick Maguire shared details of our Polio Plus fundraiser - "Community Shred"- to be held at North Town Centre Parking Lot near Sears on Saturday 10th of May. Same price of $10 per bankers box. Advertising to begin and signs placed before the event. Time Prep from 9:30 and wrapped up at two.

Neil Sorsdahl enlightened us on Golf. This will be our 12th Annual Golf fore Nanaimo Youth where our support goes to Nanaimo Youth Services Association, Barry is deeply involved with BC Summer Games and is looking for 729 volunteers for dorm captains and venue supervision at sporting events from 17-20th of July. Estimates are 3,000 participants, 22 sports using 27 facilities. Register online to volunteer www.bcgames.org Hint: avoid the hubbub at Beban Park on Thursday the 17th. Vehicles are provided and shuttle drivers are also needed. Here's our chance to have some fun and show off our city. Barry closed with "Just think, I don't want your money, just your time!"

50/50 Dawne Anderson got our money and there's 1/2 of $267 available. Our guest Jana drew the lucky ticket. Dawne had the number but lost the cut. Second chance and again Dawne. OK, she said "Brian will accept the win." Sure enough, Brian got the prize.

Sgt Denise shared the story of bribes and then fined both Jeff and Dave for their early breakfast. Bob Wall thanked Howie for the greeting style in the chair. Christine Craigie has finished this year's art unit at VIU and their closing project was to install birds and whimsies at Milner Gardens. Don Bonner presented to City Council last week and was in favour of the incinerator. First time in his life that EVERYONE voted against him! Bill Brendon is off to gamble at Mirage Poker Tourney and will share his bounty if he wins.

...Hey, nice shoes!!! I wonder whose they are?...They look like golf shoes...

...Yup, must be Neil's. :-)
