Last Catch A Smile event at Fairview Elementary...

Remembering the 2010 Olympics...

Thanks to Christine Craigie, we have some photo memories from the 2010 Olympics in Vancouver. A great event that saw people from all over the World come together to celebrate and party in harmony. What a great moment in our history!

I will be including more photos over the next few weeks.

Meeting Notes - Feb 12, 2020 submitted by Bill Hardy, photos by Donna Allen

- ⇒ 7 AM... President Doug called to order, we sang O'Canada with Rod on the sax.
- ⇒ Introductions made.
- ⇒ Visiting Rotarians – Tyler from Nanaimo North and Stephen Cochrane from Lantzville Rotary
- ⇒ Guests – Robb introduced his daughter Ali, Terry introduced his business partner Dave and Rod introduced his son Steven.
- ⇒ Sgt at Arms: Denise Davidson assigned tables...breakfast was served
- ⇒ Classification talk: Terry Gwilliam

As of this June Terry will be married to his wife Debbie for 39yrs. Have moved around over the years and 8yrs ago Debbie diagnosed with huntingtons. Two Kids: daughter the eldest at 36yrs of age, figure skater, is athletic and loves the out doors, hiking, camping etc. Son 34yrs, attended Michigan Tech University on a full scholarship in hockey and currently lives in phoenix. Terry moved from Edmonton, attended UVIC but only lasted a couple years. Started working at Western Forest as a safety inspector. Debbie started working at the bank. Then worked for Canfor, but found he did not want to be babysitter, so he began studying investment courses. Started his career at Investors Group and then moved to independent firms. Terry and Debbie moved to Kamloops to be closer to family, opened his own investment company and was there for 15 yrs. Then they moved to Island. Moved to Campbell River and partnered up and started another financial company. A lifestyle change brought them to Nanaimo, where he is still running his own investment firm with his partner Dave. Being a previous Rotarian for 18yrs, he is happy he rejoined Rotary and is part of Daybreak.

- ⇒ Ken Hammer – Rotary Minute.
Ken began by asking who has researched their family tree; then spoke about Rotary's tree; Winnipeg was the first club outside the US; Dublin was the first International club – thank you, Patrick; Outside Victoria, it was Duncan, Nanaimo North and Nanaimo Daybreak.

- ⇒ Announcements:
President Doug presented Patrick with his 4th Paul Harris Executive: we need to look at fundraising for our club, including creating a committee...in the meantime if anyone has any ideas for fundraising, please let the club know.
Graham – bottle drive may be a fundraiser – stay tuned.
Ev – Island Crisis Society “ Coldest Night of the Year Walk “ – February 22nd 5pm please join the daybreak team. if unable to attend please think about donating. Ev will send out another email reminder.
Robb – has been doing the bulletin for 13yrs and if you have not been receiving the bulletin email, please let Robb know. (but on occasion he forgets to send it out as he gets side tracked) :-)
Stephen C – on behalf of Big Brothers and Sisters thanked us for raising $3,400 for the mentoring program.
Graham – 3 more regular season home games for 50/50 ... volunteers needed. Stephen Cochrane helped out at the last one and a lady who lost her job, borrowed money for a ticket and for the 50/50 draw ended up winning....he said it is a challenge to keep up to Graham at the game.

Bonnie 50/50 – Denise Larson won some chocolate and Denise Davidson won chocolate and a tooth brush. Ev won $35.

Donna foundation draw – Rod Fay won $12.

Denise Davidson – sgt at arms – fined Ken on his rotary minute, Robb bulletin and asking if someone received the last one but they could not of as he just finished saying he forgot to send it out. Fined Pres. Doug on Valentines advice and Sher as she complains about pretty much anything.

8:05am 4 way test was recited and meeting adjourned.
