Meeting Notes - May 6th, 2020 by Randall Taylor, photos from Donna Allen

Pres Doug called the meeting to order at 7am precisely. We had 31 participants attend the Zoom meeting. No guests.

Discussion of long-term stability of the club and meeting our dues requirements for Rotary International. We currently do not cover our R.I. dues. The Board has determined that dues will be increased to $285 for members and $175 for additional corporate and family members.

Graham is organizing a Bottle Drop-off to happen on a Saturday in mid to late June. Save your bottles and collect from your neighbours. Graham will secure a large area for the drop-off.

San is organizing the annual Westwood Lake Walk for Nepal. Members agreed that this should proceed, so the event will be held on Saturday June 20th.

Pres Doug has "nitro" gloves available to keep you safe. Contact Doug for more info.

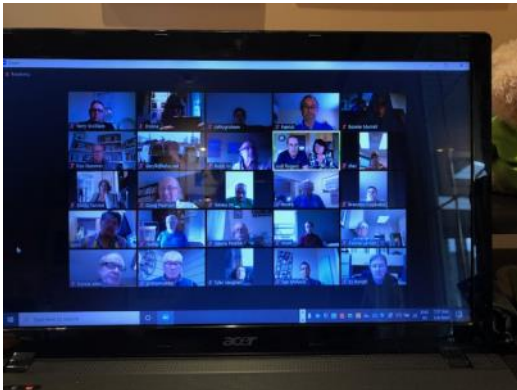

Discussion of a 5-club fund raising event in the planning stage. This will be a "virtual auction". Detail to follow.

Patrick advised that Rotary District Grant application process is now open.

Terry R stated that our club finances are down to a base-level of about $20,000. Terry would like all Directors and committee chairs to contact him if they are expecting club funds for any project or event so that we can determine the flow of funds to/ from the club.

Happy Birthday was sung to Patrick.
