Call to Order at 7:00 am; Rod Mont chairing meeting in Anna's absence (tax time!!).

Invocation: Jeff Boegel

Introductions: Patrick intro'd Samantha Letourneau, Executive Director, Central Vancouver Island Literacy Central, our guest speaker.

Announcements:

Jodi reported that next Saturday's Trash Talkin' trek starts at Wakesiah and 5th Streets.

Dawne reminded all of the Salvation Army fundraisers, including Blueberry Plant Sale, Heart Healthy posters, and Panago Pizza coupons.

Janice, with regards to next year, was in the midst of setting up an online survey (alternative to Fireside Chats) to receive feedback for club growth. The survey will be available from April 1-10.

Ken talked about initiatives for the 25 for 25 committee, including Trash Talkin', May 25 (Tues) Event kickoff to be live streamed and called for more ideas from club members.

Guest Speaker: Denise Larson intro'd our speaker, Samantha Letourneau, who holds a Degree in Global Studies from VIU and a Masters from St. Francis Xavier in NS.

Samantha provides an update on CVILC:

When COVID hit and everything shut down, it became apparent that there was a real need for computers for families to stay up to date on the current state of public restrictions and for online schooling for their children. CVILC refurbishes computers and distributes them to low income families in need. Three months worth of computers were given out in three weeks! The demand for laptops continues.

The bookstore is doing very well. As is a Youth program (started two years ago), particularly directed at homeless youth needing help. A publication called PLACE was created to give voice to Youth. It includes images, stories and poetry from mostly street kids. PLACE is available for $10 per copy, with all proceeds going to Youth literacy. 2019 and 2020 issues are available. A Word on the Street bulletin board is also available for street people to share information.

The Adult Literacy program provides computer rooms for those who cannot afford computers and internet access, as well as ZOOM training.

Samantha thanked us for the ongoing support for the CVILC Bookstore.

Doug suggested that copies of PLACE would be a addition for business lobbies. Ken congratulated CVILC for their great work and challenged the organization to extend their reach beyond Nanaimo. Denise L suggested that Daybreak Rotary should purchase 25 copies of PLACE for our 25 for 25 celebrations. Patrick congratulated Samantha for becoming a member of the Downtown Rotary Club and welcomed her to Rotary.

Birthday: Caitlin's birthday on April 5th. Happy Birthday from all.

Denise L welcomed Sher to the meeting. We hadn't seen her for awhile.

50/50: Bonnie drew the winner...and guess what?! It was Bonnie!!

Sgt-at-Arms: Graham remarked that everybody had been good, so just Happy Bucks.

Patrick: Yes, nice to see Sher.

Graham: Happy Buck for Jeff for positive health news.

Ken: $10 for Literacy Nanaimo, challenge to all to buy a copy of PLACE.

Denise: $25 to club to buy books (PLACE) from CVILC.

Doug: $10 for the Leafs in 1st place in April.

Robb matched that $10 as a fellow Leaf fan.

Four Way and toast to Rotary. Stay well all.
