Meeting Notes – Oct. 13th, 2021 by Robb Mowbray, photos by Jodi Rogers

Pres Janice opened the meeting with a smile and greetings for everyone. This was, of course, followed with O Canada, led by Rod on sax.

Daryl K provided our Invocation and Denise L called for guests to be introduced... Jeff introduced his partner, Linda Koshman, saying he "wanted to show her off." Duane introduced his wife, Michelle, perhaps as part of his classification talk? ;-)

Doug provided the morning's Rotary Moment with some words on ending Polio and finished with a Go, Leafs, Go!

Janice reminded us about contributing $3 for the meeting coffee.

Then she introduced a brief video on Polio, as well as a message via slides and video from DG Lorna Curtis on Economic Development Month.

Next week there will be a catered breakfast, but no Zoom to give our techies a rest so they can enjoy their breakfast.

Classification Talk – Duane Seibel

Duane demo'd his classification talk with a PowerPoint presentation.

He grew up in Alberta, but didn't like farming (his family's vocation), so he headed off to college and university. He achieved a degree in Youth and Child Care and was invited back to the grad program and teaching. In 1993, he moved to Abbotsford, but didn't like the Fraser Valley, so moved on to Nelson, where he met Michelle. They then moved to Kamloops for the education opportunities for their kids. Duane spent his last five years of teaching at Douglas College in New Westminster.

Duane, who is a cancer survivor, semi-retired for two weeks before becoming a consultant. His title is Mental Health and Workplace Culture Consultant. His clients include personnel from Universities and Colleges, Human Services Agencies, Unions and Professional Associations.

His family includes two biological children and three of Michelle's, plus two grandchildren and one on the way (is that right, Duane? Did I get that right?!)

Duane has been a Rotarian for 91 days. He is a Sgt-at-Arms, a member of the Community Service committee, and is looking for other areas to be involved...perhaps President 2031? ...and Denise L might have been related if a certain circumstance had played out the right way...yeah, long story...

When asked Why Rotary, Duane said he did NPO boards, was a morning person and Rotary's focuses matched up with his expertise.

Announcements

Graham asked for help for Clippers 50-50 on Saturday.

Jeff is starting to organize another Remembrance Day Walk in Parksville.

Janice reminded us about the upcoming Fireside Chat on Thursday, Oct 20 at 7pm via Zoom.

Graham noted an in-person Fireside Chat will be scheduled soon.

Discussion followed on the Executives' budget and fundraising planning. An online 50-50 was suggested.

Happy Birthday to Sheila Forrest and Rod Fay.

Graham announced the 50-50 winner: Patrick Maguire!!

Sgt-at-Arms, Duane called for Happy Bucks only, which brought thanks to guests for coming.

4 Way Test and out.
