Club Anniversaries

No Anniversaries this week.

Meeting Notes – May 4th, 2022 by RobbMowbray, photos by Jodi Rogers

Rod Mont called the meeting to order, as Janice was away. Then followed with O Canada on saxophone.

Invocation by Graham Calder. Then Cathy Graham called for Introductions of Guests. Jodi Rogers introduced her daughter Lauren and her partner Matt. Ken Hammer introduced Rick Stirling and Teresa Ostman, guest speaker.

Rotary Moment: We had two Rotary Minutes, the first one was by Darlington, who recited the song of rotary "Joy of Rotary". And for our second Rotary Minute Jody introduced her daughter Lauren, who just finished Law School and is to do her bar exam. She's moving to Toronto with her partner Matt.

Announcements

Doug: Golf Tourney Ctte, Denise L is collecting prizpri. Needs 4 identical prizes for the winning team and collecting wine. Please bring your wine bottles to the next meeting. We are closed in teams and six to seven holes are sponsored, but we do need more at $940 per hole.

Graham: spoke about the Clipper 50/50, Friday night over 5500 sold for $2,572 Saturday under $5,000 sold they ran out of tickets but still 2375 sold.

Dave T: huge shout out to Graham for doing the 50/50s at the Clipper games and to Zel, our new member who's stepping up to the plate at every opportunity.

Ken: talked about the NightsOwls. We might be moving into a 50/50 at baseball games with the NightOwls. Ken also talked about the Shredding Event & Bottle Drive. Keep promoting the event, which is the day after the golf tourney.

Induction of New Member: Ken intro'd Rick Stirling, who has become a good friend. He's the president and CEO of Western Information Management and was with the Rotary Club in Saskatoon, served as President and District Governor. Rod did the induction and Ev provided Rick's Rotary package.

Graham: mentioned discussions with Origins and the imminent return there for our meetings. Our first meeting will be July 6th.

Guest Speaker: Teresa Hoffman, editor and publisher of Wellness News. Teresa was a Rotarian 30 years ago, one of the first women in Rotary in Canada. Her entrepreneurial journey started back then. Bill Brendan has been a supporter of Wellness News right from the start. She saw a need for change, to stop pills for everything. Saw Wellness News in Manitoba, franchises were available, so she started one in Nanaimo and the Island. March 2017 the first issue, 3 editions black and white, now full colour. Wellness News covers Parksville-Qualicum, Nanaimo, Ladysmith, Lake Cowichan and Victoria. She also does a radio show 2 hours per week on CHLY 101.7 FM and now does first and third Wednesdays of each month. Teresa also has a TV show on Shaw TV channel 4 Wise Folks & ACT 3, and developed their website during the pandemic at WellnessHubVancouverIsland.ca. Wellness News is involved with several Community organizations to "get the information out there". News letters were available at the meeting.

Birthdays: Naomi Bailey and Patrick Maguire both celebrate on May 7th.

50/50: Graham ran the draw and Denise Larson won! The ticket was bought for her by Duane, so he had his hand in the win again.

Sergeant at Arms: Daryl had fines for Zel and Happy Bucks for everyone else.

Four-way tested and out.
