Meeting Notes – Jan. 25th, 2023 by Linda Koshman, photos by n/a

Hi all,
Our meeting opened with Rod playing our national anthem.
Our guests were introduced. Welcome Scott and Cathy Manson.
Sue and Bonnie Eaton from Nango were introduced.
Our Rotary minute reminded us that we work locally, regionally and internationally. Our Mid Island group only received two million dollars in 2007.

Guest Presentation: Sue explained that in the 1980s, HIV/AIDS killed 35 million adults. The children were taken in by grandmothers. In 2006, the Stephen Lewis Foundation launched their initiative to support HIV/AIDS and the often overlooked LGBTIQ community.
Bonnie Eaton shared that Nango keeps fabric out of Landfill. The fabric is used in creative items, aprons, bowl holders and tea caddies but also sold to fiber artists. This leads to a storage issue. If Rotarians have ideas or creative thoughts please feel free to let us know. Thanks Sue and Bonnie.

Cathy and Scott were inducted into Rotary by Rod and Shelia. Welcome Scott and Cathy.

Doug reminded us that Clipper games need volunteers for 50/50 draws.

RYLA is going well, we have room for more applicants.

Golf tournament meetings start in May. And don't forget Oktoberfest!

Kris shared that Shredding takes place before Oktoberfest, in late February. A reminder that if you are going to Guess Who's Coming to Dinner, perhaps knowing beforehand does defeat the purpose. February 9th at old city station beer and burgers as well as crafts. Midnight February 4th is the hard deadline please let Kris know if you want tickets. They are available and cost thirty dollars a ticket.

Ev requested volunteers for the Coldest Night of the Year.

Happy birthday Karin M.
Rick won 50/50.
