Meeting Notes – June 21st, 2023 by Hayley Poirier, photos by Cathy Manson.

President Graham opened the meeting. Rod and Jill are on a road trip to Eastern B.C., Banff and Jasper with the Rotary Exchange students Luzia and Veera. Karin lead O Canada A Capella. There were no visitors today.

Rick Sterling did the inspiration - it was a lovely message. Thank you. The Rotary Minute was done by San. Sergeant at Arms Duane assigned tables for breakfast.

President Graham shared that today was an Information meeting. He shared the club's list of who we supported and invested in for the past year. This information will be added to our website. We raised and invested thousands and thousands of dollars locally and around the world.

There are 3 book donation bins around town. People can take their books there and, weekly, we have volunteers from Daybreak Rotary take the books to Literacy Nanaimo. We spend so much time with each item we do. That adds up to thousands of dollars in man hours -bravo!

Update from Doug L. - Dragon boat festival signup sheet is being circulated. The race is July 8/9.

New members Leslie and Abbey will be Inducted next week. It was announced that we had 10 new members for 2022/23!

Jodi shared that there is no meeting on July 12. Instead, there will be a social on July 15 at Jodi's house. Details will follow.

Ev reported for the 5 clubs Area 40 committee. July 16 is the silly boat race at Maffeo Sutton.

Wayne shared about a Cancer awareness event on September 23 for men's cancers. There is also a July 5 ballgame with the Nanaimo NightOwls to raise money and awareness for men's cancers. Caitlin will bartend.

Bill reminded everyone of the Poker event happening June 25. Details are on our website and in social media. We need players. Please go on club's Facebook page and share it.

Breakfast RSVP - Please remember to sign up weekly. A good idea is to sign up as soon as you can weekly. The rsvp button is open and operational up to the end of July currently, if you want to prebook ahead.

Naomi Bailey talked about National Indigenous Day and how it is all encompassing of all Indigenous peoples. Today is all about celebrating Indigenous peoples and their accomplishments. It was a great presentation about the successes of the community and creating a positive story about success. Naomi shared some famous Indigenous Canadians

⚙️ Pauline Johnston - Mohawk Princess famous poet, feminist & actress. Statue of her in Stanley Park

⚙️ Alwin Morris - sprint kayaks racer won gold and bronze

⚙️ Mary Simon - Gov General of Canada

⚙️ Deneen Cannon - former Surgeon General

Ken Hammer and his wife Brenda are celebrating 38 yr wedding anniversary - Congratulations!

Jodi pulled the 50/50 and the winner was Cathy Manson.

A lot of Happy Bucks.
