Meeting Notes – July 26th, 2023 by Rod Mont, photos by Cathy Manson.

President Dave started the meeting with the land acknowledgement. Rod M. led us in O Canada.

Darlington volunteered to do the Inspiration / Invocation. For her Rotary Moment, Bonnie asked us to consider being inclusive by remembering that several years ago, the national anthem had a small but significant change to the lyrics from "all our sons" to "all of us". Kris led the Introduction of Visiting Rotarians and Guests. Today we enjoyed the company of Greg Devenish, the current president of Lantzville Rotary, Liam Egan, and Dr. Chidum Anyanwu.

Ken introduced our Guest Speaker Greg Devenish. Greg told us lots about the Vancouver Island Military Museum <https://militarymuseum.ca/> which is located between the Port Theatre and Port Place Mall. Greg said that everything in the museum is about people and their stories. The goal of the museum is to remind people about the role of the Canadian military both while at war and in peace. The museum was founded in 1986 and moved to its present location in 2010. The hours of operation are 10 -3 Tuesday - Friday and 11 - 3 on Saturdays. The museum is also available upon request. It is entirely run by volunteers. Greg concluded his presentation with a "show and tell" of some of the items that are stored at the museum.

Anna presented the budget for Nanaimo Daybreak Rotary for the Rotary year of July 1, 2023 to June 30, 2024. If anyone wants a copy of the proposed budget, they can either email a request to Anna or they can find it under the Members Only section of our website. Rod M. moved to pass the budget as presented. This was seconded by Duane. This will be voted on by the club next Wednesday.

Doug L. announced that there will be a meeting next week for Oktoberfest. The meeting is likely to be on Tuesday. Contact Doug L. for details.

Tanya did the 50/50 and it was won this week by Scott. Daryl was sergeant-at-arms and collected lots of money.
