Meeting Notes – April 10, 2024, by Scott Manson, photos by Cathy Manson

President Dave chaired the meeting.

Rick S.: Inspiration - 2 ideas
 "Rotary takes ordinary people to do extraordinary things"
 "Be the kind of person you want to meet"

Ken H. introduced our 2 guests: Sheila Anderson and Joyce Smith, who present about "Project Amigo".

Val Cunningham was introduced for the last time as a guest as she was inducted at this meeting.

Rod M.: Rotary Moment was about choices. He gave a few examples of the many choices, large and small, that we all make every day. As Rotarians, we make choices to help people!

Sgt. At Arms: Duane S. Duane got us to throw (loaded) dice to determine the order of tables for breakfast.

Rob M. informed us that Golf Tournament tickets TO PLAY will be out next week, at a cost of 3 for $10.

Ken H. then presented Past President Graham C. with an award for our club raising over $1500 in donations for the Polio Plus Campaign.

Duane S. (Val's sponsor) and Graham C. then inducted Valri Cunningham into our club. Yay Val!

A slide was then shown by Graham C. of a statue in Bowen Park that had beautiful bunches of daffodils planted around it that members of our club planted.

Our Guest Speakers were then introduced by Ken H. Joyce and Sheila both have long histories as Rotarians and are very involved in Project Amigo in Mexico. Project Amigo provides education opportunities for children in Mexico. One girl, Brenda, has become a doctor through her hard work and help from Project Amigo. Students get everything they need to get through school and graduate. Joyce sponsors a student for $850/year. Project Amigo has been around for 30 years and has produced over 1000 high school graduates, and over 100 university graduates.

After their presentation, Wayne drew the 50/50 ticket and Lisa G. won $60!!!

The meeting concluded with our Sgt. At Arms, Duane, accepting ONLY happy bux.

Another great meeting!
