Meeting Notes – October 23, 2024, by Rod Mont, photos by Cathy Manson

The meeting was opened by President Daryl and Rod led O Canada. Mike G. said that we just need to look around the room to be inspired by all the good work that Daybreak Rotarians do. Denise L. did the introduction of visiting Rotarians and guests. Our guests today were Cal Davis from the Nanaimo Clippers, Theo Postulo who would be inducted into our club later, our guest speaker Shane Walders, and two VIU students from Ghana, Daniel Odum-Boatang and Charlotte Amponsah Danso.

To set the order of tables for breakfast, Valri did a subtraction quiz.

It was announced that starting in November, the cost for breakfast will be increasing to $25. The Golf Course has agreed to change up what is being served for breakfasts. For those who are not having breakfast, the cost is $5. Thanks to Bonnie and Lisa for negotiating this.

There is a wooden cash donation box for the club which has gone missing. Please look for it!

Cal Davis presented Doug L. with a cheque for $12,500 from the Nanaimo Clippers Hockey Team with thanks for all the work done in the 50/50 last year.

Rod inducted Theo Postulo as our newest Daybreak Rotarian. He was introduced by President Daryl. Welcome to the club, Theo!

Ev introduced Shane Walders from the Haven Foundation <https://haven.ca/> on Gabriola. Haven was founded in 1983 by two physicians Bennet Wong and Jock McKeen. In 2004, The Haven was transferred to a charitable organization, Haven Foundation. The Haven offers programs devoted to understanding ourselves and others and creating a life we want. The programs has titles like Come Alive, Couples in Conflict, and Pathways to Resilience. It is located on seven acres overlooking Taylor Bay. The Haven is also available as a venue for concerts and conferences with an auditorium which seats up to 165.

Mike G. and his committee have been working hard on the Hamperville Dinner and Auction which will take place on November 19th. Cathy M. is organizing the silent auction tables. She asks that donors please provide a suggested retail value for the donated items. Donna is coordinating the baking tables.

RYLA (Rotary Youth Leadership Awards) is looking for volunteers. Contact Lesley if interested. For the Rotary Moment, Tanya spoke about what Rotary has given her: a sense of purpose, awareness, fellowship & kindness, and education.

Jodi did the 50/50 which was won by President Daryl. Valri collected happy bucks to finish the meeting.
