What can we do to be inspiring each and every day?
Find some way to lift others even in a small way
For when we rise above and focus more on others
We see them differently – mothers, sisters, brothers
Abundance surrounds us in things both big and small
As Rotarians we ensure there is enough for all
Our fundraising and our time are only part of the story
Enriching someone else's life surely this is the glory
For when we rise above ourselves and feel the gratitude
We share not only hope but a positive attitude
What can you do to be inspiring each and every day?
Especially when it doesn't feel like life is going your way
Think bigger picture about the world you want to see
And keep that vision so together we make it a reality
So when you feel frustrated, misunderstood or even a little mad
Focus instead on our common purpose and you can't help but feel glad
We have security, a tribe and a place
Go out into the world and fill it full of grace.

Meeting Notes – November 13, 2024, by Hayley Poirier, photos by Cathy Manson

President Daryl called us to order at 7am and Rod led us in O Canada. Tina M helped us with introductions. We had Cathy M. share an inspiration, a lovely poem. Thank you. [Editor: Cathy's poem is on the first page of this issue.]

Sergeant at arms - Doug O. assigned tables in a fun way, each table had a planet in the solar system, to reflect the topic from our guest speaker. Random planets were announced to set up the order for breakfast. What a creative group we have.

The Daybreak Rotary Board discussed a possible new member, Charlotte Amponsah. The Club has been asked to consider Charlotte. If there are no objections made to a member of our executive before the next regular meeting, she will be invited to join our club.

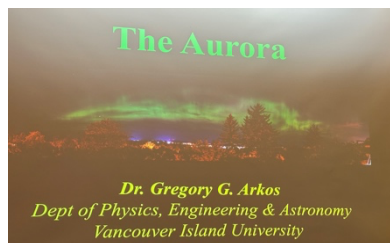

President Daryl asked Cathy M. and Donna A. to update us on the Hamperville Christmas Dinner and Auction which takes place next Tuesday. Details are going well. Ask their committee for details.

Some of our club will be heading North to participate in an information session put on by Craig Gillis and Daybreak Campbell River. The session is in Campbell River and they have room for a couple more members to carpool, if you're interested. Let the Secretary know.

Our guest speaker was Dr. Greg Arkos Ph.D a professor at VIU in the Department of Physics, Engineering & Astronomy. He spoke to us about the Sun and its effect on the Aurora. It was a very interesting presentation about this phenomenon. 2024 has been a banner year for seeing the Aurora. Greg recommended the site <https://spaceweather.com/> for news and information about the Sun. The group really enjoyed the presentation and followed up with questions. A donation in honour of the presentation will be given to Polio inoculation.

Sergeant Doug O. asked for happy bucks and President Daryl wrapped us up with the 4 way test.
