Meeting Notes – December 4, 2024, by Kristin Rongve, photos by Cathy Manson

Can you believe that it is December already? Weird! What? Focus? Meeting notes? Fine....

President Daryl opened the meeting! We sang O Canada! Scott M. did an inspiration that was all about bicycles! Did we know that he likes bicycles? Cathy M. did introductions. We had Melissa McGuire from Oceanside visiting. I told her we had the best club as we teased and all liked each other. Doug L. told me that I had to tell her the truth. I accept the truth is that Doug L. apparently does not like me. It makes me sad but I will accept it.... Our other guests were Kristi Savage who was our guest speaker last week and Peter Sinclair from Loaves & Fishes. Graham C. was Sergeant and my table was not last for breakfast! Yay!

Graham C. announced that the Nanaimo Women helping Women wants donations. There was an invitation to bring items on a list to next week's meeting (SINCE RESCINDED – DON'T BRING THEM). Doug L. says that Rod F. sends greetings. Doug L. also said that the Xmas auction committee has beer cans for sale (probably with beer in them): 22 Budweiser, 23 Red Truck, 19 Kokanee, and 19 Canadian. Mike G. and Daryl presented a $10,000 cheque to Peter Sinclair for Loaves & Fishes! Wow. Way to go to the committee! Peter said thank you and that the $10,000 cheque will mean $50,000 of food to Xmas hampers, regular hampers and their partner organizations. He also said they need volunteers.

Our speakers were Nelson and Rick on the Rotary Foundation, and a summary is: please donate. It helps others and it helps our club help others locally and internationally. Donations can be made through rotary.org or by donating at the Foundation table at our meetings. Tax receipts will come. Courtesy of the exchange rate on our Canadian dollar, our club must submit a total of $8,300 CDN with each member donating at least $25 USD to meet the Every Rotarian Every Year target.

Doug L. was at the Clipper's game, he received the second cheque for Daybreak Rotary for last year's work. Mike H. did a Rotary Moment. It was about the ability to leverage. And Rotary leverages to make Vancouver Island, BC and the world brighter. Awww. That was a wonderful RM!

Bill B. did 50/50 and somehow, don't know how it happened, he won the pot! So much excitement that I did not record how much he won. But I hope he shared with Corbin who was the one who actually drew his name.

Then there were draws for 4 bottles of wine and Ev B. won twice, then President Daryl, then Alan R. Doesn't it look good to come back from a morning Rotary meeting with wine?!

Graham C. did the Sergeant fining thing. He fined President Daryl for not reading the Bulletin. This confused President Daryl. I told him to accept. Sergeants just do the sergeant thing. No one really needs to understand. There were lots of happy bucks after that. We did the test. We did the toast. We did the departure.
