Meeting Notes – November 5, 2025, by Kris Rongve, Photos by Abbie Vomacka

President Sheila opened our meeting, and we were forced to sing O’ Canada without Rod M. It was pretty well done! Alan R. handled introductions. No visiting Rotarians and one guest, a friend of Jodi’s, by the name of Kelly Raine. Her third visit! Yay! We have not scared her off (yet.) Graham C. did inspiration. It was inspirational! (Okay, I accept that’s not really funny but... I enjoyed it anyway). Sgt Duane S. did the sgt thing. I am sad to report that I was almost at the end of being fed that day.

Announcements by President Sheila. 808 Wing is having a Remembrance Day event, 10:30 to 2:30. Drop in. We have received an email asking us to volunteer for kettles. The following people would be interested in handling the kettles for a day: Sheila, Jeff, Tina, Denise D., Kris. Boys & Girls Club sent a heartfelt thank you.

Announcement by Mike G. - He has an amazing committee. There are four awesome live auction items. 1. A four-hour tour (not three) on the original Minnow from Gilligan’s Island four-hour tour. 2. A staycation package. 3. A flight/hotel/Chairman’s tickets package for an Edmonton Oiler’s game in March. 4. A private pool party for 20 including food and soft drinks.

Program by Tina M. and Bonnie M. this week on the Ignite app and DACdb.com. They took us through how to sign in and the three web based databases that we can access: Rotary International, District 5020, and this new app. They were wonderful, knowledgeable and all sorts of good things.

President Sheila asked Doug L. to miss doing his Rotary Minute. He graciously agreed. It was Natalie C’s birthday on November 3 and Jodi R’s birthday on November 8. We sang. It needed the saxophone.... Bill B. did 50/50 and Alan R. won $65. Announcement by Donna A: The Celebration of Life for Nelson is on November 19, 2025, in the afternoon at the golf course.

Sgt Duane S. did fines and happy bucks. We did the test, the toast and the departure!
